

Hop Inn News Letter

A little late

Wishing you a Happy & Healthy New Year to you ALL

THANK YOU

A BIG Thank You for bringing your Furry Friends to me to look after. It's the most rewarding job, very therapeutic and also great exercise—especially in the Summer months.

HOP INN since April 2011

(Year of the Rabbit!)

It'll be 4 years this April when I started Hop Inn. I'm not sure where that time went! It's been fascinating and even more educational than I imagined. I know I talk a lot but I do listen intently to your stories about your Bun/s or Piggy/s and it's so insightful—I LOVE it!

BUNNY BONDING—Rabbits & Guinea Pigs love company

It has dawned on me that some of you would like another Bun to keep yours company but are unsure how to go about it for fear of them not getting along and then leaving you in a dilemma!

(I can help with Piggies too!)

Just to let you know... I am going to bring in a couple of healthy neutered rescue rabbits and look after them at Hop Inn until they find a forever friend. It'll be great to have this facility at Hop Inn as I can take care of the bonding.

HOLIDAY COST—A BIT OF AN INCREASE...Just the Buns

Sadly after nearly 4 years I'm going to have to increase the prices slightly for the Buns to £6/day and £8/day for friends sharing. I'm going to need help cleaning out as (husband) Stuart and daughters (Thea and Tay) were supposed to help last year but were very inconsistent - so they're sacked! Secretly, I think they're relieved.

HOP INN HOLIDAYS

Some of you are very organised (you know who you are!) and have already booked your Bun/s Piggy/s Holiday. If you know your dates please don't leave it too late. I felt really bad last summer when there was just no more room at the Inn.

WHAT'S HOPPENING IN QUIETER MOMENTS AND LATE AT NIGHT...?

I've been busy marketing our own 'Hop Inn the Tunnel', 'Hop Inn the Cube' and NOW 'Hop Inn the Box'—Just had to be done... These were made by Stuart but my dear bored retired brother (David) has taken over and he's doing a brilliant job—but that's him.

The products are really another hobby that works brilliantly along side my furry friends, it gives me the opportunity to sit at the computer and get a round bum!

We sell our Cubes, Tunnels & Boxes on our Hop Inn website, Amazon, eBay, QVC, Pet planet, Pampurred Pets, Downtown, Tails & Whiskers various other lovely places. Our website is being redesigned but still working and I can't wait to see 2015 revamp.

Believe it or not our Cubes and Tunnels are Featured in Your Cat magazine Jan 2015 and will be in The Cat magazine under 'Our Favourite Things' in May, this was more by accident than design. They're also great for cat owners as they are rip proof/tear resistant, Certified and Approved by Trading Standards. SADLY not chew proof but don't hesitate to tell me what is.....

Please tell your friends about our Cubes, Tunnels & Boxes. You're my greatest allies....

I hope you're all fit and well and I look forward to seeing you all again soon.

Warmest regards
